If you miss any ICC meetings or fail to remain active this quarter, you will get another probation. 2 Probations means Inactive Club status.

If you need information on how to remain an inactive club this quarter, this can be found on our site (<https://www.deanza.edu/clubs/>) under How to Stay an Active Club This Quarter. For your convenience, we covered this in our last ICC Representatives meeting, and have included the list below.

How to Stay an Active Club This Quarter

To stay an active club off probation this quarter, all clubs must meet these minimum requirements:

1. Make sure to have someone present for the entirety of Club Day on January 22nd from 4-6 PM PST
2. Make sure to have a representative at 4/5 ICC Meetings this quarter
3. Have a meeting a month and send proof of the meeting including a picture of the Zoom window to the ICC Secretary and ICC Chair of Club Affairs, this adds up to a total of 3 meetings during the quarter
4. Reply to the Club Responsiveness Check conducted by the Chair of Club Affairs after the penultimate meeting of the quarter.

Failure to fulfill one of these requirements will result in the club being placed on probation, if a club has two probations, they become inactive. You can read more about this in the ICC Codes (<https://www.deanza.edu/clubs/documents/codes/ICC-Code.pdf>).

For all clubs that are having difficulty during COVID, you can opt to become inactive during this period and resume after we return to campus. The process to do this is to fill out this form: <https://forms.gle/zGTp3J2wM2i5bTxE9>. To reactivate, you will have to go through the process as a new club creation, but the ICC will work with your club to make this as seamless as possible.

While you are on probation, you will be unable to vote during ICC Meetings, request access to ICC or Club Funds, and unable to win any prizes offered by the ICC.
